The aims of the CEFcult project are:

- to develop an online environment for the assessment of oral proficiency for intercultural professional communication.
- to promote a multilingual workforce by targeting (future) employees, language teachers, and in-company trainers (Europe 2020).

Currently, the CEFcult consortium is defining the various components of the web-based environment in view of the upcoming pilots.

- the selection of rating scales,
- the definition of tasks that require the activation of both language and intercultural competences, and
- the web 2.0 user interface of the assessment environment.

Since 2005 in Cuba:

- PROFILE 1: Socializing at Home Country for Beginners
- PROFILE 2: Socializing Abroad for International Mobility
- PROFILE 4: English for Managerial Purposes Management of International Collaboration Programmes

Intercultural encounters: ‘English Club’

Since 2009 in Europe:

- The aims of the CEFcult project are:
  - to develop an online environment for the assessment of oral proficiency for intercultural professional communication.
  - to promote a multilingual workforce by targeting (future) employees, language teachers, and in-company trainers (Europe 2020).

Since 2010: Caeltic as a pilot for CEFcult using WebCEF: