8. What aspects of the workshop were the most useful?

Comments/recommendations:

- Discussion on “primary” material.
 - The activity types that could be used not only as assessment of learning but as learning as well.
 - Analysing the different tests.
 - The input and discussions.
 - The sample tasks that are used for assessment of learning were really helpful for my situation.
 - 1) Both trainers were very friendly and extremely helpful. 2) That it is very important for students to assess themselves. 3) We as teachers must prepare the right materials to gather information, guide pupils to assess themselves and find better means of communication.

9. What were the most important new things you learned during the workshop if any?

Comments/recommendations:

- I needed to find out new methods for assessment, and the trainers gave us enough information, handouts and new methods.
 - Lots of new ideas you can apply at work.
 - Consider focusing only on those things in oral tests that can't be tested on paper.
 - The variety of ways for alternative assessment. Process writing in assessment.
 - It made me think of new ways of assessment. Some of the tasks that can turn assessment into a student-friendly experience.
 - Deeper insight in the assessment concept.

10. What aspects of the colloquium could be improved if any?

Comments/recommendations:

- Less papers distributed; more in-depth discussions
 - I cant think of any.
 - It was just excellent the way it was.
 - More time to evaluate tests and samples of test papers.
